WELCOME

HEBREW BIBLE READING

Psalm 56:1-13 NRSVUE

Be gracious to me, O God, for people trample on me; all day long foes oppress me; my enemies trample on me all day long, for many fight against me.

O Most High, when I am afraid, I put my trust in you.

In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I am not afraid; what can flesh do to me?

All day long they seek to injure my cause; all their thoughts are against me for evil. They stir up strife; they lurk; they watch my steps, as they hoped to take my life.

Do not deliver them for any reason; in wrath cast down the peoples, O God!

You have kept count of my tossings; put my tears in your bottle.

Are they not in your record? Then my enemies will retreat in the day when I call.

This I know, that God is for me.

In God, whose word I praise, in the Lord, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I am not afraid. What can a mere mortal do to me?

My vows to you I must perform, O God; I will render thank offerings to you.

For you have delivered my soul from death and my feet from falling, so that I may walk before God in the light of life.

+GOSPEL READING

Luke 10:38-42 NRSVUE

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at Jesus's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks, so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her, then, to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things, but few things are needed—indeed only one. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

This is the word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS of the PEOPLE and the LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SPECIAL OFFERING

United Voices for Children is a coalition of groups and individuals within the Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church. UVC was founded in 1979 and dedicated to speak and act on behalf of children, youth and their families who need the voice of an advocate as well as to nurture and support ministries of the Conference. In serving children and youth in the Chicagoland area and beyond, we believe kids are at the heart of who we are!

United Voices for Children serves as:

- A catalyst generating support for the NIC child serving agencies (Kids Above All (formerly ChildServ), MYSI Corporation and Rosecrance Health Network) and enlisting members in the local church to become advocates, trained to speak on behalf of children and their families in their communities.
- A conduit through which information and resources can flow back and forth between congregations and child-serving agencies. And our Policy Partner, Children's Advocate for Change, we generate ideas for new ministries and ways that local congregations can collaborate with the agencies in implementing their services to their constituents.
